

Center of Excellence in Dementia Care

Membership Options

Center of Excellence Initial Membership:

Includes on-site access to a neuropsychology assessment, access to initial care management assessment and personalized care plan development, lifestyle assessment, dietician consultation, eight hours of respite services in-home, access to training and support for person and caregiver, and access to additional a la carte services. Priority access to Broadmead's future Center of Excellence Assisted Living Memory Support as space is available and as eligible.

Center of Excellence Annual Membership Renewal:

Includes on-site access to a neuropsychology assessment as needed, one follow up care management and lifestyle consultation, eight hours of respite services in-home, access to training and support for person and caregiver, and access to additional a la carte services. Priority access to Broadmead's future Center of Excellence Assisted Living Memory Support as space is available and as eligible.

Other Ancillary Services:

A full list of services can be made available by contacting Stacey Young, Director of Center of Excellence in Dementia Care at 443-578-8026.

For more information and pricing of services, please call 443-578-8026.